Hundreds Seek Vainly to Hear "Aida" at Opera

Capacity Audience Applauds a Fine Performance, With Caruso, Emmy Destinn, Louise Homer and Amato

in the Cast, Mr. Polacco Conducting.

BY SYLVESTER RAWLING. Were turned away from the Metsepolitan Opera House last night rhon "Aida" was sung, with Caruso as ladamen. The capacity limit was enched and the lobby still full of an and a westing line stretching down to Seventh avenue. After the were elected many of them pe-waited their turn to get to the Fueday evening, when the opers will be repeated with the same cast except hat Johanna Gadski, instead of Emmy Destina, will sing the title part. Mr. Tososnini, everworked, surrendered the cellent performance of Verdi's opera.

Caruso, not yet quite sure of himself with a reticence that made his art more distinguished. His "Celeste Alda" was pronounced with rare grace and his the Nile scene was never better ione. Miss Destinn, as Alda, kept artistic pace with him, singing the "O Patria Mis" with more than usual Louise Homer, singing at her best, a beautiful as well as a command-ing Amneria, made the blindness of Radames to her charms all the more inexplicable. Amato was a fine Amenasro, and Didur as Ramfis, Rossi se the King, Lenora Sparkes as the unseem Priesters, and Audiste as the Mesenger ably sustained their parts in the The chorus was excellent and the come of triumph at Thebes of the Hundred Gates was well done. Before the n, in the numerous calls, Caruso indulged in many of the playful tricks that a part of the audiance, at least, regree to enjoy.

THREE WOMEN ENTERTAIN WITH MOUSSORGSKY AS TEXT. Three women gave one of the most charming entertainments of the season at Rumford Hall yesterday afternoon, with Mouseorgety, the composer of "Borts Godunoff," as the text. Constants Purdy, an American contracto, who has spent some years in Russia. swainson played some of his compositions for the plane, while Esther Swain on made delightful little running con come on each number, and in the deal of Mouseorgaky's life and accomsts. The Misses Swainson are English, with a well-carned reputation in London and Paris.

At the beginning, without accompani-ment, W. Resnikoff, who is blind, sang group of folk-songs that made a s appeal. Miss Purdy's simplicity charm were commented upon in column when recently she gave own recital. Dorothy Swainson the ded taste and skill as a plantet. Bittle lecturer, who carried off the honors. She denied that Moushill been charged. If he did not renie, she declared, it was because he was a revolutionary and chose his own titles, as anybody who had seen his ts must know.

25 CENT "DANDERINE", FOR FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF-GROWS HAIR

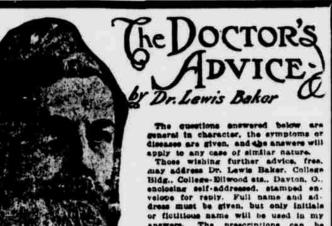

Don't pay 50 cents for worthless hair tonics—Use old reliable, tarmless "Danderine"-Get results.

Thin, brittle, colories and acraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robe the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp which if not remedided causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and dio—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent hottle of Knowiton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application you will say it was the best investment you ever made. Your hair will immediately take on that life, lustre and luxuriance, which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Mrs. John Herdon French, wife of Dr. French of No. 48 West Fifty-first street, went shopping in several Sixth avenue stores shortly before noon yesterday. She was wearing a necklace valued at 11,000, a gift from her husband. When she returned to her home about 2 o'clock she found har necklace was gone. She rushed back to the stores she had visited and a vain search for the missing necklace was made in each of them. The police of the East Fifty-first street station were notified. According to a statement made by Mrs. French to the police she was jostled several times in the store crowds. Neither Mrs. French nor the police would discuss the loss last night.
